TRUCE PATCHED UP AMONG DAUGHTERS

Official Reader Takes the Blame for Sensational Story Incident.

Following a day of apparent routine, to judge by the character of the program outlined, the sessions of the soclety concluded shortly after 11 o'clock ast night with a dramatic incident last night with a dramatic incident which the conservative element supporting Mrs. William Cummings Story, of New York for president general believe has tended to strengthen her candidacy even more than their own efforts. Last night Mrs. Story was not allowed to present her report from New York during the program of three-minute reports from the States which were given in Continental Hall. The incident came like a thunder clap to the delegates in the hall. Mrs. Story had advanced and had taken her place on the stage at the side of Mrs. McLean when the president general announced that only the States which had responded when the roll was called would be permitted to submit reports. This was in accordance to a resolution which read that when these reports had been submitted other States which had not answered the roll call would be heard in alphabetical order.

Leaves Hall.

When New York was called there was much applause, and Mrs. Story pro-ceeded down the aisle to the stage. As ceeded down the aisle to the stage. As she turned and faced the Congress, Mrs. McLean made the announcement covering the provisions of the resolution. There was confusion in the hall, and Mrs. Story announced that if she were not permitted to tell of the record of a State which has 8,000 members, sne would "gladly await the pleasure of the president general." Amid the applause, Mrs. Story left the platform and was immediately surrounded by her delegation. She left the hall, and the members from New York were augmented by other delegations. The confusion attending Mrs. Story's by other delegations.

The confusion attending Mrs. Story's departure from the hall, which she left immediately, was such as to cause Mrs. McLean to rap for order in the rear of the hall. Many delegations followed Mrs. Story and the New York Daughters out into the foyer, not leaving a sufficient number inside the hall to complete a quorum, and the meeting was adjourned.

REPORTS THEFT OF JEWEL PINS

Mrs. Pleasant F. Chapman, 1815 Columbia road, reported to the police of Coulon the Tenth precinct this morning that a diamond pin valued at $30, a D. A. R. pin worth $5, and a suit of clothes had been stolen from her residence.

Mrs. Chapman said she suspected an unidentified white man who was seen eaving the house by the basement door several days ago.

Trouble Arose Over Article About Young French Attache.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.-Clubdom today is agog over the story that at the Pacific Union Club Count F. de Jouffrey d'Abba, s, an attache of the French consulate, slapped the face of John D.

spreckels, eldest son of the late sugar king, and was knocked down several times for the attack.

The Call, of which Mr. Spreckels is the proprietor, stated this morning that Count d'Abbans' diplomatic career havisizzed out," and that he had been recalled by the French government. The Call said further:

"The titled Frenchman began his diplomatic career by singing Parisian dittles at a banquet of the Sons of the American Revolution. His next appearance was in a one-round bout with his chauffeur, whose wife he had invited to huncheon. His hilarity reached its climax last week, and the doors of the Fairmont Hotel were closed to him."

D'Abbans called at the Pacific Union Club while Mr. Spreckels was at luncheon today and demanded a retraction of the story and $1,000 damages. Mr. Spreckels was at luncheon to day and demanded a retraction of the story and $1,000 damages. Mr. Spreckels was at luncheon to the story and $1,000 damages. Mr. Spreckels was at luncheon to the story and $1,000 damages. Mr. Spreckels was at luncheon to the story and $1,000 damages. Mr. Spreckels was at luncheon to the story and $1,000 damages. Mr. Spreckels he had been lajured he should bring suit against the Call.

D'Abbans persisted in his demand, Mr. Spreckels the millionaire in the face with his open hand. Mr. Spreckels thereupon knocked the Frenchman down, and when the latter came at him again sent him down once the more at him again sent him down once at more at him again sent him down once at him again sent him down once and the story and $1,000 damages. Western Wrestler Gains Straight Falls-Meets Galvin Tonight.

CHICAGO, April 21 .- Dr. B. F. Roller, CHCAGO, April 21.—Dr. E. F. Roller, the Seattle wrestling star, returned to-day from Danville, Ill., where he defeated Henry Hoffer, of Chicago, last night in a wrestling bout, in two straight falls.

Tonight, Roller will wrestle Jim Galvin, "The Rough House Champion," at a local theater.

RINGSIDE GOSSIP.

Joe Jeanette, the colored heavy-weight, is now the idol of the Paris sporting public, who have almost forgotten Sam McVey since Jeanette knocked him out last Saturday night.

Billy Delaney and his California heavy-weight, Al Kauffman are on their way to the Pacific Coart, having reached Chicago on Monday.

Jim Coffroth has matched Monte Attell. Abe Attell's brother, to box Johnny Coulon at Colma, Cal., on June 10, for twenty-five rounds and the bantam-weight championship.

Young Otto, of New York, and Jimmy Britt are to meet in Paris on May 5 for twenty rounds at 135 pounds, weigh in four hours before the contest.
